Subject: - Establishment of camps at various Highland Pastures

CIRCULAR

In order to provide Veterinary Health care during this summer to migratory sheep and Goat at high land pastures as a routine, all the District Sheep Husbandry Officers are directed to gear-up the official machinery well in advance to ensure establishment of Camps at Highland Pastures by mid June 2020 . The number and location of camps to be established must be meticulously worked-out in order to ensure coverage to entire migratory sheep & goat population via adequate utilization of available staff and to avoid multiple camp establishment at the same location(s) by different District Organisations. The camp activities must be properly supervised and monitored.

The activities must be executed via observation of all SOPs in view of Covid -19 pandemic.
